

News of the Surrounding Region

The Day's News in Pictures

Old Mission Man Honored at Party

By MOLLY SOBKOWSKI
Calvin Fuller was the honored guest at a surprise party at the home of Sylvia Sanborn last Sunday evening. The occasion was Calvin's 17th birthday. Games were played with prizes going to Dana Wells and Calvin Fuller. Guests were Roger and Mary Jo Kitchen, Kay Kitchen, Cal Carpenter, Dana Wells, Kay Jean Leighton, Mary Linsley, Joan and Janet Schavey, Elmer Jamison, Jack Holmes and John Ostlund.

Two little boys were christened at St. Joseph Catholic church last Sunday morning. Thomas Thomas was attended by Bob Wolf and Muriel Weatherholt. Godparents for Mark Ferris were George Lardie and Gertrude Lardie.

Mrs. Edgar DeVoll spent Wednesday and Thursday with the Robert DeVoll family.

Barbara Lardie passed physical and aptitude tests at St. Lawrence hospital in East Lansing last weekend. She plans to enter there for nurse's training in the fall.

Isaac Nashka and his two daughters from Omena have employment on the Roy Ostlund farm.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Spruit returned home this week from a month's vacation in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheelock and family moved back to Old Mission Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanborn entertained several friends at their home Saturday evening. Games of Cootie were enjoyed by all with prizes going to Bernard Holman and Ervin Franklin. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Seaberg, Mrs. Ervin Franklin, Mrs. Bernard Holman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phelps.

Old Mission Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Murray Tompkins Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. F. Roy Lardie, president, presided at the business meeting. Much progress was reported by the apron and quilt committee. The next meeting will be an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Len Sobkowski on Wednesday, April 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phelps moved to their beside home Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Thomas and their son, Bruce, have returned to their home in Old Mission from Ogdensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lardie and Mr. and Mrs. F. Roy Lardie attended the funeral of Mrs. F. Roy Lardie's nephew, Gerald Warren, in Traverse City, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Julius Marshall returned home by train from a California vacation last Saturday.

Lake Ann

By BERNICE ROBLEE
Mrs. A. J. White called on her sister, Mrs. Julia Egger, and Mrs. Anna Tooley of Traverse City, Friday.

Mrs. Pearl Nelson left Thursday to spend several weeks with her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jewel in Benton Harbor.

Mrs. Kuemin is spending several weeks with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kuemin in Niles.

Choir practice was held at the home of Mrs. Dick Nelson Wednesday evening.

Rollie Ramey spent the weekend at home with his family. He is employed in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Majzak and son called on the Rollie Ramey family Sunday afternoon.

Mayfield

By MRS. EDITH BLACKHURST
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zivell and daughter of Muskegon and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glendenning and family of Buchanan were last week guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Glendenning.

Archie Archaubeau of Mt. Pleasant spent a few days last week with his sister, Mrs. Josee Alcock.

Mike Kanope's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dulek of Wisconsin were his guests last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Duell of Garfield road were callers last Sunday at the Kanope home.

Mrs. Harold Wilson is convalescing at home after having surgery at Munson hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Langs of Traverse City were callers at the William Blackhurst home on Monday.

Those attending the 4-H Achievement Day held in the Traverse City Central high school gym on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Blackhurst and Martha, and Edna Gray.

Kingsley

By MRS. FRED BRAUTIGAM
Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Smith funeral home for George Weaver, who passed away at his home last week.

Rev. Ben Wyma and Rev. Perry Deyarmond officiated and burial was in Evergreen cemetery. Coming from away to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Weaver of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Oxendale of Indian River, Mrs. Jake Eager of Lansing, William Veldman, Harley Bruggink, Mr. and Mrs. George Veldman and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Bruggink of Hudsonville, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott and Leonard Morgan of Grand Rapids and Rev. and Mrs. Ben Wyma of Scottville. A dinner was served in the Baptist dining room on Monday to the family and friends.

Leo Winchcomb is a patient at Boardman Valley hospital.

Ed Rawlings returned home last week after spending the winter in Florida.

Thelma and Clyde Hopkins of Grand Rapids were callers Saturday at the Irwin Rawlings home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cleland spent from Tuesday until Thursday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cleland in Montague and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cleland in Allegan.

There was a young people's rally at the Free Methodist church Saturday with Rev. Charles Kerestly of Winona Lake as guest speaker. A business meeting of the officers of the young people's organization was held in the afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. Kerestly were guests of Rev. Anna Carlson, while here.

Mrs. Clarence Reamer received a telephone call from her son, Gilbert, Sunday evening from New Jersey. He had just arrived from Germany, where he has been serving in the army.

Week-end guests of Mrs. Mary Wilson were Marilyn Hollenshead, Althea and Althea Hollingshead, Bob Bartlett and Clifford Johnson and son Bobby of Midland. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Billadeau and sons, Mrs. Oliver Tompkins and Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins and daughter of Traverse City.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Henschell and son, Mike, spent Thursday and Friday in Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Henschell and Tom Church returned home Saturday from Florida, where they have been vacationing for two weeks.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Ekan and children and Mrs. Minnie Hendricks of Traverse City.

Mrs. Gertrude Sparling, Mrs. Ruth Tabberer, Mrs. Lillian Clark and Mrs. Mary Wilson attended the Northwestern Women's Farm Bureau meeting in Traverse City Wednesday.

Clinton Cleland and nephew, Gregory Cleland of Montague spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Hazel Cleland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Reamer and sons of Cadillac spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Pearl Weaver accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ross Weaver to Jackson Tuesday for a few days' visit.

South Grant

By MRS. L. E. ROGERS
The South Grant Farm Bureau met at the Grant townhall Thursday evening. The meeting was called to order by Elmer Pavlis. Roll was taken with 20 families represented. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Milton Guernsey, report on the director's meeting by Don Middaugh, report on the woman's activity meeting by Mrs. Neil Bacon. Discussion on "Does Michigan Need a Toll Road System?" was led by Dean Sheets. After the business session the meeting was turned over to the recreation leader, Mrs. L. E. Rogers. Games were played with Don Middaugh, Mrs. Carl Zue, Mrs. Charles Goddard and Dean Sheets as winners. Elmer Pavlis showed slide pictures of the Paul Bunyon Day at Cadillac, the National Cherry Festival at Traverse City, the Empire sand dunes, and other places of interest.

The W.S.C.S. of the Grant church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson, Thursday afternoon. Plans were discussed for a bake sale to be held at Gambles store, April 4, beginning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Zue of Detroit are spending a week here at their home and visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Skellett and Mrs. Gertrude Bigger made a trip to Grand Rapids, Wednesday. Mrs. Bigger will leave there by train for Skidmore, Missouri, to visit her son, Rev. Maurice Bigger and family.

Mrs. Neil Bacon, Mrs. Ferris Ramsay, Mrs. Ervin Davis, Mrs. Basil Bush, and Mrs. Lawrence Rogers, of the South Grant Farm Bureau, served the refreshments at the Farm Bureau Woman's Activity meeting at Traverse City, Wednesday.

A number from here attended a missionary meeting held at the Methodist church at Mesick, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll, Miss Ethel Carroll and Miss Laura Moon spent the week-end visiting relatives in Muskegon.

Mrs. John Deuster of Suttons Bay called on Mrs. Olga DeLong and Mrs. Ed Steffens, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Bill Schwarz was hostess at a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Walter Couturier at her home Saturday evening. Mrs. Couturier received many gifts and at the close of an evening of games, refreshments were served.

The Leland ceramics group had their biweekly meeting at the home of Miss Mollie Kropp of Good Harbor.

The Gills Pier ladies had a quilting bee at the church basement Thursday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Kalechik and Mrs. Henry Sedlacek served a lunch to the group. This week they had their quilting on Wednesday, and the lunch was potluck. The quilt will be sold at their annual dinner next summer.

Mrs. Robert Green of Bingham township was in Leland Monday making her annual township treasurer's returns at the county treasurer's office.

Mrs. Herman Dunklow and Miss Mollie Kropp of Good Harbor were business callers at Traverse City on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Sol Coppens returned home Tuesday after taking her husband to Dearborn. Mr. Coppens is convalescing from a broken hip received in a fall last winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hilton of Mesick spent Sunday afternoon with their mother, Mrs. Ed Steffens.

Mrs. Olga DeLong and Mrs. E. C. DeLong were business callers at Traverse City on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Gains returned home Friday after attending the funeral of their daughter, Mrs. Lillian Hammond of Marshall on Tuesday.

The Prospector's club will hold their March meeting at the Suttons Bay Grange Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. August Hohnke spent the week-end in Traverse City with their daughter and family, the Ralph Hills.

Miss Edna Hohnke of Traverse City spent the week-end with her parents, the Otto Hohnkes here.

enroute to their home from Traverse City, where they had been to visit his mother, who is ill.

Mrs. Ella Corning is at her home in Buckley.

children of Traverse City spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kyselka.

Honor

By NEVA WELLS
Mrs. Ralph Hooker, Mrs. Alex Chalmers, Mrs. Mary Bonner and Miss Neva Wells attended the first extension lesson on "Upholstering," at Beulah, Tuesday. The ladies will make an ottoman or stool.

Miss Sara Armstrong of Traverse City spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goin of Shingleton and Mrs. Rose Brant of Trenary were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Acha and family.

Mrs. Deana Hanson and daughter Mrs. Harold Sorenson of Onekema and Mr. and Mrs. John Stonehouse of Frankfort, were guests Tuesday of the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Acha.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Kentner were Sunday guests of Mrs. Effie Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fay in Ludington.

Miss June Buell of Bear Lake was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Armstrong and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hobson and family, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Hobson and family were guests Thursday night of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Johnson and family in Beulah, the occasion being Mrs. Weaver's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hooker had as dinner guests, Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks, the occasion being the Hooker's 46th wedding anniversary and the Park's 26th wedding anniversary.

Charles Hazard of Thompsonville preached at the Congregational church, Sunday, in the absence of Rev. Brooks.

A few friends gathered for a little surprise party at the home of Mrs. John Bonner last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hobson visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Robert Ashmore, who is ill in Traverse City, Sunday.

The senior class is giving a game party at the school gym, Wednesday evening April 1. There will be 23 hams given away in the games.

Mrs. Ogden Hobson and family, Mrs. Cecil Hobson and daughter Mary, and Mary Mead, spent Saturday with the former's mother Mrs. Piellusch in Manistee.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beechcraft had as guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hooker and Mrs. Jeannette Parks, the occasion being the birth days of Barbara Beechcraft and Jeannette Parks.

Mrs. Helen Clow and daughter, Cora, of Bendon were week-end guests of Mrs. Bessie Clow.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Armstrong and daughter, Sara, attended the wedding reception and dance of their nephew, Billy Gillison, which was held at the White Owl, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Slaughter of Mt. Clemens and Mrs. Minnie Slaughter of Frazer were week-end guests of the latter's son and daughter-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Slaughter.

Mrs. Margaret Hobson entertained the bridge club at her home Tuesday evening. The high score went to Mrs. Irene Robothan and low to Mrs. Donna Hobson.

Miss Neva Wells was a guest of Mrs. Leona Johns in Benzonia last Tuesday.

Buckley

By GLADYS NISEWANDER
Services at Buckley-Cornell United Christian church: 10:00 a. m. Sunday school, Victor Skellett, superintendent; 11:00 a. m. worship Ohmer Curtiss, pastor; 2:30 p. m. youth's group meeting. This group is growing and volunteers are needed to help call for and return the young people to their homes.

Women's Christian Fellowship meeting was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Andrew Haan. A potluck luncheon was served at noon. The Buckley Gospel Tabernacle is redecorating and installing overhead lighting.

Mrs. Gertrude Bigger and Mrs. Ezra Bennett left Wednesday for Skidmore, Mo., where they will visit Mrs. Bigger's son, Rev. Morris Bigger and family.

Mr. and Mrs. August Lindemeier of Perrysburg, Ohio, and niece, Mrs. Henry Lemmebrock of Bowling Green, Ohio, called on Gladys Nisewander, Friday.

SAVED FROM APARTMENT FIRE

CAUGHT IN A PRE-DAWN flash fire in a Chicago apartment, Mrs. Leo Baker is carried down a ladder to safety. The fire, believed set by an arsonist, killed at least five, injured eight. (International Soundphoto)

HE'S BREATHING IN SHORT PANTS

YELLING "I gotta get my pants!" Jules Nayfack rushes back into his burning office apartment in New York, from which fire had routed him. But firemen (one shown lower right) intercepted Nayfack and he had to go pantsless. Ten families were evacuated during fire. (International)

GENDARMES SWOOP DOWN ON REDS

FRENCH GENDARMES are shown outside headquarters of the Communist-dominated CGT (General Confederation of Labor) in Paris during raid in which several top Communists were arrested and charged with treason in connection with attempts to demoralize the French army. Among those arrested was Andre Sill, editor of the Communist paper L'Humanite. (International Radiophoto)

SPRING FEVER IN PARIS

SPRINGTIME IN PARIS brings forth this zany headdress designed by Phyllis. It was inspired by a circus elephant, 'tis said. (International)

EVERYBODY WANTS IN THE ACT

UNSOLICITED DESIGNS for the American Flag are pouring into the office of Arthur DuBois, chief of the Army's Heraldic branch in Washington, now that Hawaii apparently will become the 48th state in the Union. DuBois is examining some of the more than 100 designs (and advice) received from most states, Hawaii and Alaska. (International)

ONE-MONTH MOURNING ORDERED

Duke of Windsor and Queen Elizabeth

Dowager Queen Mother Mary examining coronation robes in 1951.

GOT HER FOR BANK ROBBERY

MRS. HELEN MECKE, 19-year-old wife of an airman at Carswell Air Force base near Fort Worth, Tex. is shown in custody in Fort Worth, where she is accused of bank robbery. She was identified as the girl who walked into a suburban bank with her baby in her arms, put a sack on a counter and held a gun at the baby's head, threatening to shoot the baby unless the sack was filled with money. She got $1,570. Police Matron Dia Rowe and Detective George Hawkins are shown escorting the weeping jeans-clad mother. (International Soundphoto)

SPRING CAN BE A TRAFFIC HAZARD

Spring weather is certainly wonderful. Makes you feel good all over. But don't let spring fever take command when you're driving or walking in traffic. Seriously, you might hit somebody or get hit.

BE CAREFUL—THE LIFE YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN!

Published as a public service in cooperation with The Advertising Council, Inc.