Dorothy Louise Wiltzie Abbott

February 18, 2006

Dorothy Louise Wiltzie Abbott, 91, of Eastwood, in Syracuse, formerly of Skaneateles, where she was born, died February 18, 2006 in Syracuse. She previously resided at her home on Hickok Avenue with her son John, where, together, they enjoyed gathering friends for lovingly prepared meals and times of sharing. She is predeceased by her husband, Paul, who died in 1956, and her son, John, who died in 2000. She was a communicant of The Church of the Savior on James Street in Syracuse, where she was active serving on its vestry. Her interest in fostering fellowship among members led her to organize and serve after-service coffee hours, which continue to this day. Arranging, planning and serving parish dinners after evensong gave her particular pleasure. Her relationship with her church, and her faith, continued to remain a meaningful part of her life until her death.

Dorothy worked in the old Chimes Building on Salina Street for 16 years, and shared many stories with her friends about those earlier days in downtown Syracuse. She was employed by The American Legion Department of New York, and assisted Veterans with their claims with the Veterans Administration.

Following her employment there, she joined the firm of Hall and McChesney, Inc. on Court Street, to become Executive Secretary for Hendrix Ten Eyck, the Company's president. She retired 16 years later, and was able to enjoy several trips to England and Scotland with her son, John, as well as spring and fall stays at the Glen House in Canada.

She is survived by her sister, Harriet Hardwick, of Syracuse; her caring nephew, Jerry Hardwick (Diane) of Tavares, Florida; several cousins, nieces and nephews, grandnieces and nephews, and devoted friends.

Calling hours are Thursday, February 23 from 4 to 6 p.m. at Goddard-Crandall-Shepardson Funeral Home, 3111 James Street, Syracuse. Funeral services to be conducted at the Church of the Savior, 437 James Street, Syracuse, on Friday, February 24 at 1 p.m. Burial: Lakeview Cemetery, Skaneateles, following the church service for family only.

Flowers are acceptable or contributions may be made to the Church of the Savior.

To us you were so special. What more is there to say. Except to wish with all our hearts that you were here today. They say that time heals everything, but we know that isn't so. Because it hurts as much today as it did 3 years ago.
We love you and miss you.

I am lost for words. Can't believe it has been 10 yrs. And as time goes on, I set goals for you, for the both of us. Some easy, some hard, some bad and most of them good. And my personal goal for myself is to bring you in. And the way I feel now, this goal will come true too.
Now, How proud are you? Look what your boys have done so far. You made 2 College All Americans, and your 20 yr old is becoming a marine, something we could have never done. And your other boys are excelling in high school still, their futures are just beginning. I know you will be helping them too. Oh, and... your about to become a grandfather, old man.
Well I talk to you soon, my even see you soon. Hope everything is going well for you. Cause this is not getting any easier to do. Love you. And remember "Even though you're gone, we're still a team, through your family I'll fulfill your dreams"
Love always, your little brother,
David
